

Text: Romans 4:16-25

Title: It Is Of Faith

Summary: In Romans 4:16-25, Paul says we share the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. Abraham believed God and God counted it as righteousness. The same is said of us, who believe in the God Who delivered up Jesus for our trespasses and raised Jesus for our justification.

Review

- Summarize the history of the world leading up to Abraham.
- What makes God's work in Abraham's life a turning point in history?
- How is the relationship between faith and grace displayed in Abraham's story?
- Why does Paul describe Abraham as "the father of us all?"
- List the various ways that Abraham's faith was tested.

Application

- What incident from Abraham's life most inspires you to faith-full-ness?
- List some of the things we Christians believe by faith.
- List some of the ways our faith is tested today.
- What are practical ways we can strengthen our faith?
- Tell a story of God working in your life through your faith.